IT & ERP Orientation

Date: 01-03-2025

Time: 12.00 PM to 01.00 PM

Venue: Bahumukhi Sabhangana, KAPMC,

Resource Person: Mr. Murulidhara H N from Shomu Consultant, SAP Practice Head, Bangalore

The Department of Computer Applications organized an insightful IT & ERP Orientation on 01st March 2025, featuring Mr. Murulidhara H N, SAP Practice Head from Shomu Consultant, Bangalore, as the resource person. The session attracted 68 BCA and BCom students along with faculty members, focusing on enterprise resource planning systems and IT career opportunities in ERP domains. Mr. Murulidhara delivered comprehensive coverage of SAP modules (FICO, MM, SD, HCM), ERP architecture, implementation lifecycle, and integration with emerging technologies like AI and cloud computing.

Students gained practical understanding of SAP navigation, business process mapping, configuration basics, and career pathways in ERP consulting. Live demonstrations showcased SAP GUI operations, master data creation, and transactional processing, bridging theoretical knowledge with enterprise applications. The resource person's 15+ years of SAP implementation experience provided authentic industry insights into multinational implementations and module interdependencies. Feedback from 62 respondents indicated 88% content relevance, 91% industry exposure value, and 94% career clarity improvement, with students particularly appreciating functional vs technical consultant role distinctions and certification pathways.

The interactive Q&A addressed SAP learning curves, project implementation challenges, and fresher hiring preferences across IT-ITES sectors. Mr. Murulidhara recommended SAP certification tracks alongside BCA curriculum and shared Shomu Consultant's internship opportunities. The orientation successfully positioned students for high-demand ERP careers while establishing valuable industry connections for future placements.
