Special lecture on central Budget Analysis

Date:26-7-2024

Time:12.00 PM to 1.00PM

Venue: MSc class room at KAPMC , SHIVAMOGGA

Resource Person: Dr. Srinivas Murthy

A special lecture on Central Budget Analysis 2024–25 was organized for B.Com students on 26 July 2024 from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM at the MS Classroom, KAPMC, Shivamogga. The session was delivered by Dr. Srinivas Murthy, who provided an insightful analysis of the Union Budget for the financial year 2024–25. The lecture focused on the key features and objectives of the central budget and its impact on various sectors of the Indian economy. Dr. Murthy explained the government's allocation of resources, fiscal policies, revenue generation, and expenditure priorities. He also discussed the budget's implications for sectors such as agriculture, education, healthcare, infrastructure, industry, and social welfare.

Students gained a deeper understanding of how budgetary decisions influence economic growth, employment generation, and national development. The speaker highlighted both the opportunities and challenges presented by the budget and encouraged students to critically evaluate government policies from an economic perspective. The interactive session allowed students to raise questions and clarify their doubts regarding budget provisions and economic planning. The lecture was highly informative and beneficial, enhancing students' knowledge of public finance and current economic affairs. The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Srinivas Murthy for sharing his valuable expertise and insights.
