An Orientation on CA Foundation and Career Path was organized by the Department of Commerce on 19/02/2026 from 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm for B.Com students at Bahumukhi Auditorium, KAPMC, and Shivamogga. The special lecture aimed to guide commerce students and CA foundation aspirants about opportunities in the Chartered Accountancy profession. The 2.5-hour session provided detailed information on CA course structure, including CA Foundation, CA Intermediate, and CA Final levels. Resource persons explained registration procedures, syllabus, exam pattern, and effective study strategies for clearing exams in the first attempt. Special emphasis was given to time management, subject-wise preparation tips, and importance of conceptual clarity in Accounts, Law, and Economics. Students learned about career scope after CA, job roles in audit, taxation, finance, and consultancy, along with salary prospects. Faculty members discussed article ship, practical training, and skills needed to succeed in the profession.
