Guest Lecture on Film Studies

Date: 24-01-2026

Time: 10.00 am to 12.00 pm

Venue: KAPMC Memorial College

Resource Person: Dr. Padmanabh, Assistant Professor, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, SDM PG Centre, Ujire

The Department of English, KAPMC Memorial College, organized a special session on “Film Studies” on 24 January 2026 for the students of BA Literature.

The session was delivered by Dr. Padmanabh, Assistant Professor in the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, SDM PG Centre, Ujire. The resource person, well known for his expertise in film studies and film criticism, shared valuable insights into the concepts, themes, and narrative structures of contemporary cinema.

During the lecture, Dr. Padmanabh discussed various aspects of film analysis, including storytelling techniques, characterization, visual representation, and the social relevance of films. He also explained how films reflect cultural values and contemporary issues. His observations encouraged students to view cinema from a critical and academic perspective.

The programme was organized for the benefit of BA Literature students and witnessed active participation from the attendees. The session was conducted in the presence of Rajendra Chenni Sir and Manjunath Swamy Sir, whose support contributed to the success of the programme.

The event was coordinated by Ms. Reshma, Roja M, Alex P Jose and Dr. Ganesh Prasad S G. The programme concluded with a note of gratitude to the resource person for his informative and engaging presentation.
